POTUS RETWEET: If you are planning to attend peaceful protest in DC on the 6th, I recommend wearing a body camera. The more video angle that day, the better.

▼ “ A coward dies a thousand times before his death, but the valiant taste of death but once.

Yeah, but often the coward lives to 97 and the valiant Dudley Do-Right type has his one taste of death at, say, 25.

Not endorsing being a coward, and yeah yeah the whole "die on feet rather than live on knees" and all that jazz, but it's still a point worth keeping in mind.

▼ 88 And the LORP snipe with M... ..

saying unto them,

24 The LORD bless thee, and keep thee:

25 The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

26 The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

1 ▼ ye shall bless the children of Israel,"

" And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them"

And then God got pissed off at Israel because they were acting like perverts and he sent his Son to sort them out and create a new covenant with humanity. Israel as it is written in this scripture today means US, it means Christians. Christians are God's chosen people.

1 ▼ Yeah but Christian Zionism is an weird American political invention.

For most of history the church taught this was the era of the new covenant, all Christians were "gods chosen people" and Christendoms primarily objective towards Jews was to try and convert them. Certainly not help them establish a Jewish state around Jerusalem. That would be counter productive to converting them.

No - "Israel" means God with us. There's a country called Israel that is filled with fake Jews from the synagogue of Satan. The majority of whom are descended not from Abraham, but from converts who were trying to escape persecution at that time.

The Israel you reference will be taken care of soon. Patience my Pede. Patience. All in due time.

Meanwhile, it's the belief in something bigger than ourselves that keeps us sane and civilized. If you don't believe me, watch this perfect example of Lord of the Flies in current time -- it's the story of Liberia, a haven for freed slaves who went to Africa to start over and show the world the blacks could run their own country. But they did it without God, without Laws, essentially without Government. You know, like the John Lennon bullshit song, "Imagine."

Good stuff...Im pretty clued up on it! I am a fan of Israel as a nation (they have Israel first policy which is great for them!) - but obviously hate Zionism and Israel first as a US policy.

If you think the Chinese are infiltrating government, the amount of Ashkenazi Jews is massive compared to the population. I don't see BLM asking for clarification there?

Also why in every single bill is their aid to a nuclear power and has advanced tech economy? The last stimulus had about 500 million for Israel!

There is no doubt a skateboard, in the right hands, is a lethal weapon. It is heavy enough, it has a grip on the wheels and had an edge. You can most certainly inflict a lethal blow to the skull and probably neck. Particularly if the person is on the ground. Even if antifa was not shooting at him WHICH THEY WERE as well as brandishing, multiple people mobbing him, some armed with skateboards, is a huge disparity of force. He had reasonable apprehension of grave bodily harm and death. He used a proportionate amount of force to terminate the attack, with skill most adults wouldn't be able to do.

Certainly more capable that your average cop.

as funny as it is I know the real reason.

its actually the way the connector inside lines up. when you observe it you're perfectly watching the edges, but just going by feel it never works the first time. Its because if you look inside the thing theres a bar that goes across that has to line up just perfect and sometimes even the edges arent a good guide of it heading in straight-on.

i know this is stupid but i plug in a ton of these so ive thought of why it is.

Video everything and make sure it gets spread around. Our fake cuck news is reporting violence expected because trump supporters attacked police and "counter protestors" last time. I only saw the videos of elders and people separated from groups being attacked by antifa on this site. Don't let the fake news create the narrative:

There was no real tracking of materials at that time as so many were destroyed so he just kept the gun and walked to his buddies house with his full battle uniform, rifle, ammo, a grenade that they set off in middle of woods cape Breton when drunk one day years later.
Canada had freer gun laws until faggot Trudeau (father, not the mega fuck in today) came in and even then, ammo was easy to buy American style until the 2000s. He had some other guns in a chest somewhere, honestly don't think they're even legal anymore lmao.

WARNING: Wall of text comparable to a leftist commie meme follows!

OK my MAGA non-nerd friends, the camera you're looking for is a DJI Osmo Action cam for $200 and some extra batteries ($20/ea) from your local BestBuy if you don't have one already on your way to D.C.

Yes, I know "oh mah gerd, the CCP's DJI!" but it's nothing to worry about because it doesn't really require an app to use.

It's only $200 as compared to the $399 Hero9 and is just as good while also being smaller.

The interface on it also stomps on the GoPro.

If you're still hung up on getting a GoPro stay the hell away from the Hero9 from now - the interface is sluggish and prone to registering the wrong taps due to that interface slowness. Ask me about my $399 pain-cam that is collecting dust for now until GoPro unfucks it in future firmware updates.

No, the latest Hero9 update didn't fix it. And the rear display looks like absolute shit compared to the Action. And it's bigger, bulkier, and overall a meh device right now. ✓ worthless for crowd shots.

Also the the case the Osmo Action comes with is compatible with GoPro accessories so you can use any number of cheap chest mounts or backpack strap mounts with it.

Get at least two Sandisk Class 3 (U3) cards of at least 256GB so you can press record and not worry about it for a while.

Use the maximum bitrate as possible, keep the exposure and shutter speeds set at auto, & record at least in 2.7k/60fps or the highest settings you can while still keeping the RockSteady stabilization turned on. If using a GoPro, make sure you're recording in the highest WIDE setting you can to capture as much of what's in view as possible.

Yes, these cards are expensive but you don't want to have to worry about the storage medium corrupting during use.

Format the card AFTER you put in the cam to make sure the cam sets up for it properly.

After copying off any footage to laptop or external USB drive, format the card again.

Basically you want to set it up so that you can record the highest resolution as possible for the longest period of time.

That way you - or the police - can review the footage afterwards to get good stills of faces and/or clothing details of anyone who attacks you or others as well as slow down the footage a bit to better track an attacking motion for proof beyond a shadow of a doubt regarding intent.

It's D.C. and it appears that no matter how much you appreciate the boys in blue, they are not your friends in D.C.

Cops in D.C. are at the beck and call of the liberal Mayor and all charges are federal charges in the district. And since you're not a psychotic, violent liberal the local prosecutor will throw the book at you.

RECORD EVERYTHING! Even if you're just walking to the event and no where close to the action.

If something happens even the innocuous footage on your cam could solve a crime.

But also bear in mind that same footage could convict you if you screw up and strike first.

4 ▼ I bought my GoPro after the first stop the steal rally in November Great purchase. I recommend the GoPro 8. I also recommend buying the stock because everyone is going to need a body camera after the 1/6/2 ✓
